EDWARD DAVID VOGEL, AKA, AR, DAILY SUMMARY.

CONCERNING LMRA CASE INVOLVING DELUXE CIGARETTE SERVICE, INC., VOGEL CIGARETTE VENDING COMPANY, PAYING UNION DUES FOR TWO EMPLOYEES. THIS MATTER DISCUSSED WITH AUSA [redacted] AND HE ADVISED THAT HE IS CONSIDERING PROSECUTION IN THIS MATTER. HOWEVER, DUE TO THE TECHNICAL NATURE OF THE VIOLATIONS INVOLVED, HE ADVISED HE INTENDS TO SUBMIT THE MATTER TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FOR THEIR OPINION. HE ADVISED FROM PRELIMINARY DECISION THAT IT APPEARS THAT SUCCESSFUL PROSECUTION COULD BE HAD ONLY AGAINST THE CORPORATION, AS HE FEELS IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO PROVE EITHER OFFICERS OR VOGEL HAD AUTHORIZED THESE PAYMENTS. HE ADVISED NO FURTHER INVESTIGATION IN THIS MATTER IS NEEDED AND FEELS THAT THE VIOLATIONS CAN BE EASILY PROVEN.

RAYMOND CLYDE SIMPSON, 5820 North Magnolia, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at his place of employment, Deluxe Cigarette Service, Inc., 7730 North Milwaukee, Niles, Illinois, on October 15, 1962. He advised as follows:

He has been employed by Deluxe for approximately three years and currently has the title of route supervisor. He has been a member of Local 761, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, during practically all of the term of this employment. He joined this union within a week or two after he was hired by Deluxe. He recalls that he filled out a form for joining the union but he does not know if this form amounted to authorization for check-off. The union initiation fee was of no concern to him inasmuch as he belonged to a Teamster Union in 1955 when he was driving a taxicab in San Diego, California. He does not know who is paying his union dues. He assumed his union dues were being taken out of his pay but recalls that there was no reduction in his pay after he joined the union. His starting salary was $75.00 per week, and it remained at that figure after he joined the union. He does not attend union meetings and is not an officer of the union.

He stated he thought it odd that he receives no stamps or receipts from the union acknowledging his dues payments and had recently asked [redacted] why no union book had ever been issued to him. He recalled that it was Mr. [redacted] who first approached him regarding the union and asked to fill out the application form for membership.

He exhibited a recent salary check stub which failed to reflect a union dues deduction. He commented that the company must be paying his dues because it apparently is not being deducted from his salary.

He advised there are five individuals including himself who [redacted] for Deluxe. He listed them as follows:

b6

He said all are members of the union, and to the best of his knowledge, none have official duties in the union. He related no other unions are known to him to have approached or attempted to move in on Deluxe.

He advised he does not know DAN COLUCIO. His immediate boss is PHILIP ZIT. The general manager of Deluxe is EARL KIEB, and JULIUS ZIMMEROFF is in charge of the juke box phase of the business.

He related there is an office at 7730 North Milwaukee for one of the bosses, but this individual, EDDIE VOGEL, is never there. He stated he has seen EDDIE VOGEL about two times in three years. He does not know GUS ALEX and never heard of him until about a week previously when one of the other employees, [redacted], mentioned that he had [redacted] GUS ALEX.

He is paid a weekly salary of $100.00 by check and receives an additional $45.00 in cash as a mileage allowance for use of his automobile. It should be noted he stated he no longer goes out on a route but spends more of his time working in the office at 7730 North Milwaukee.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 10/30/62

DANIEL J. COLUCIO, Secretary-Treasurer, Local 761, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, 740 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, made available the books and records of his union concerning Deluxe Cigarette Service, Incorporated (Deluxe) from 1957 to date.

A review of these records reflected the following:

The only employees of Deluxe who are members of Local 761 are [redacted] and RAYMOND SIMPSON. Union dues in the amount of $6.00 are received each month by Local 761 from Deluxe. This amount is transmitted by a check drawn on Deluxe accompanied by a letter showing the names of [redacted] and SIMPSON and amount paid. b6 b7C

These dues are recorded in the Day Book when received. They are then transferred and posted to the Vending Division Ledger. The cash receipts ledger shows only a total of dues received during a day or group of days and is not broken down by name or company.

Authorization and Application forms for [redacted] and SIMPSON authorizing the employer to deduct union dues from their salaries were examined and appeared to be in order.

From 1957, dues have been continuously paid by Deluxe on two employees each month. These dues were $7.00 per man from 1957 to January, 1961. The dues were $4.00 per man from January, 1961 to January, 1962. The dues are presently $5.00 per man per month.

No payments, other than union dues, to Local 761, were evident in this examination.

Date 10/26/62

FRED W. POPP, Accountant, Deluxe Cigarette Service, Incorporated (Deluxe), 7730 North Milwaukee Avenue, Niles, Illinois, advised he would not answer any questions upon the advice of the company's attorney. However, Mr. POPP voluntarily furnished the following information relative to the operations of Deluxe:

There is no correspondence available between Deluxe and Local 761, I.B. of T. Employees of Deluxe number approximately ten, two of whom are members of Local 761, I. B. of T. Those employees are [redacted] and RAYMOND C. SIMPSON.

It has always been Deluxe's policy to pay the union dues for the union employees and dues are not deducted from their salaries.

He does not know what officer or officers of Deluxe authorized this practice, but it has been going on for years.

He thinks that any changes in the amounts of the union dues or any policy matters between Local 761 and Deluxe are probably handled by telephone by one of the officers of the corporation and the union official. This would account for the absence of correspondence between Deluxe and Local 761.

Mr. POPP exhibited application and authorization forms of Local 761 bearing signatures of [redacted] Chicago, and RAYMOND SIMPSON, 5944 North Winthrop, Chicago.

The records of Deluxe are on a fiscal year basis starting in June and ending in May. Records of the company from June, 1956, to present were made available for review.

Mr. POPP further advised that each routeman for Deluxe receives a weekly salary plus car expense ranging from $35.00 to $50.00 a week and none of this expense money is deducted by the company for any reason.

Mr. POPP advised that Deluxe Cigarette Service, Incorporated, during 1955 purchased back its capital stock owned by DANIEL J. [illegible] and himself, Mr. POPP. He advised he received $2,[illegible] for his stock and [illegible] received $16,000.00 and now $10,000.00 of Treasury stock is carried on the books and records. He advised EDWARD D. VOGEL is the sole stockholder of Deluxe since 1955.

The enormity of VOGEL's operation involved in these coin operated machines includes approximately 600 locations. Of these 600 locations there are approximately 150 of the more lucrative ones possibly involved in the skimming operation itself. There are five route men involved in this skimming operation who will have to be isolated from the other employees, it being pointed out that CG 6568-C* has indicated that all of the employees of VOGEL are not aware of this operation.

[redacted] American Airlines main office, Los Angeles, California, advised their records show the following:

Records were checked for reservations for EDWARD DAVID VOGEL for the period January 5, 1963, through January 11, 1963, for reservations for VOGEL aboard American flights leaving Los Angeles, for Chicago, Illinois. Their records show that E. VOGEL boarded the flight 194 as a First Class passenger on January 6, 1963, bound for Chicago, Illinois, non-stop. The flight departed at 1:30 PM. The reservations were not made locally. A further check of the records indicated that reservations were made in Chicago, Illinois, sometime in December, 1962. This conclusion was reached by Mr. [redacted] due to the fact that the Los Angeles office of American Airlines received a teletype from the Chicago office on December 18, 1962. VOGEL's name appeared as a passenger with reservations for flight 195 departing Chicago, Illinois December 23, 1962, bound for Los Angeles. At that time, reservations were made, apparently by VOGEL, for return flight from Los Angeles to Chicago on flight 194, departing Los Angeles January 6, 1963.

Records also show that E. VOGEL boarded flight 194, First Class passenger, non-stop from Los Angeles to Chicago on January 21, 1963. This was a one-way fare, and no return was indicated. VOGEL indicated that he could be contacted at his residence at telephone ST 8-2156. This reservation was called in by telephone on January 10, 1963.

Mr. [redacted] advised that the records of American Airlines reservation and passenger lists are maintained for sixty days only.

ANN FENNER

It has previously been reported that ANN FENNER is the paramour of EDDIE VOGEL. It is pointed out that in the latter portion of this report under the caption "Travel" information is revealed that ANN FENNER registered with EDDIE VOGEL as man and wife at the Executive House in Scottsdale, Arizona, during May, 1963.

A physical surveillance of ANN FENNER at 4655 White Oak Avenue, Encino, California, on April 3, 1963, by SA [redacted] revealed that three automobiles were parked at FENNER's residence, a 1955 Cadillac (yellow) bearing 1963 California plates ICD 832, (registered to GEORGE HADIAN, FENNER's brother), a 1963 Thunderbird (blue) bearing 1963 California plates PTZ 475 (FENNER's automobile) and a 1963 Ford (black) 500 XL bearing California dealer's plate I over N 2091 of Town and Country Motors, Reseda, California.

At about 1:40 p.m., the black 1963 Ford departed with FENNER being driven by another female believed to be her sister-in-law, Mrs. GEORGE HADIAN, and accompanied by HADIAN's [redacted] and FENNER's mother, Mrs. ANNA HADIAN.

FENNER was delivered to the Los Angeles International Airport where she alighted from the car, checked her baggage with the Western Airlines (WAL) baggage clerk at which time the other two females [redacted] departed in the automobile. Thereafter, FENNER was observed to board WAL Flight 623 bound for Phoenix, Arizona. FENNER was wearing a blue jacket with three-quarter length sleeves, a green sweater, purple skirt and black accessories.

It is noted that previously reported information indicates that telephone number ST 8-2156 is the telephone number of ANN FENNER at 4655 White Oak Avenue, Encino, California. It is also noted that the Town and Country Motors is the place of employment for FENNER's brother, GEORGE HADIAN.

On April 8, 1963, CG T-2 advised that she had not seen any indication of VOGEL's presence in Encino; however, she would remain alert for any visits by VOGEL. She said the only cars that have been parked in the driveway were FENNER's 1963 Thunderbird, LORRAINE NADIAN's 1963 Ford, and GEORGE NADIAN's 1955 yellow Cadillac. CG T-2 also pointed out that FENNER is [redacted] in an apparent effort to provide additional privacy. She pointed out also that FENNER's spring wardrobe is such that she must have an unlimited source of income. She said it has been very difficult to engage FENNER in conversation because FENNER has remained close to her residence. b7D

In efforts to determine where EDDIE VOGEL resides in the Los Angeles area when he visits ANN FENNER the following investigation was conducted. It is to be noted that it was previously reported when VOGEL confirmed the airline reservation from California he left a telephone number which was registered to Westwood Sovereign Hotel.

On May 8, 1963, [redacted] Westwood Sovereign Hotel, 10776 Wilshire Boulevard, West Los Angeles, California, advised SAA [redacted] that he was unable to locate any record for registration for VOGEL or FENNER at that hotel. The records, however, show that Mrs. WILLIAM VOGEL stayed at the hotel [redacted] on November 26, 1962, in Room 122. At that time Mrs. VOGEL was [redacted] in locating [redacted] West Los Angeles. The [redacted]

On May 16, 1963, [redacted] advised that Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM VOGEL registered at the hotel at 10:20 PM, May 17, 1963, and were assigned to Room 206. He further advised that [redacted] picked them up that evening at the hotel. On that same date, Mrs. ELSIE WALTENBERG registered at the hotel and was assigned Room 204. Mrs. WALTENBERG and the VOGELs indicated that they would stay at the hotel for a couple of weeks. It is also pointed out that on the prior stay of the VOGELs at that hotel, there were no long distance telephone calls made by the VOGELs. The address furnished was 4250 Marine Drive, Chicago, Illinois. 3020 Lakeshore Drive, Chicago, was furnished as an address for [redacted] who stayed at the hotel on November 25, 1962. b6 b7C

The following airlines were checked with negative results in an effort to locate a reservation or flight from Los Angeles to Phoenix for VOGEL, FENNER or Mrs. ANNA MADIAN (FENNER's mother):

Western Airlines, checked May 14, 1963, by SAs [redacted] and HAROLD F. DODGE;

American Airlines, checked May 15, 1963, by SA [redacted]

TWA, checked May 16, 1963, by SA [redacted]

Continental Airlines, checked May 16, 1963, by SA [redacted]

On May 3, 1963, CG T-2 advised that at about 11:30 PM on May 2, 1963, ANN FENNER arrived at her residence at Encino, California, accompanied by an unidentified male. CG T-2 advised that it was observed that luggage was being transferred from FENNER's automobile into her house. On May 6, 1963, CG T-2 advised that she was able to overhear what sounded like a violent argument at FENNER's residence Sunday evening, May 5, 1963.

CG 92-345

CG T-2 advised she was unable to determine the details of the disagreement but distinctly heard FENNER arguing with a male individual whom she referred to as EDDIE and ED. CG T-2 advised she was of the definite opinion that FENNER's male visitor accused her of making some kind of mistake because FENNER was on the defensive throughout the argument, which lasted about a half hour.

From May 7 through May 24, 1963, CG T-2 advised she was unable to observe any activity at the residence of ANN FENNER.

On May 18, 1963, Sergeant [redacted] Los Angeles Police Department, Intelligence Division, advised SA [redacted] that one of their officers observed the following at the Los Angeles International Airport:

A white male, adult, dark hair, thin build, sharp features, about 50 years of age (apparently GEORGE MADIAN, brother of ANN FENNER) meet EDDIE VOGEL, ANN FENNER and Mrs. MADIAN and [redacted] who had 12 pieces of luggage. He advised that VOGEL was overheard telling FENNER that he would be in Los Angeles a couple of days and was thereafter going to Palm Springs for a short stay. They were observed to enter a 1963 Ford station wagon, tan in color, bearing California license 1/L 2091, which is registered to Town and Country Motors, Reseda, California, where GEORGE MADIAN is employed.

b7C

Sergeant [redacted] advised on May 21, 1963, at about 7:00 PM, Monday, May 20, 1963, the following automobiles were parked in front of the FENNER residence. It is not known whether or not the individuals driving these automobiles visited FENNER or persons in the neighborhood. They are: [redacted] registered to [redacted] Los Angeles; and [redacted] registered to [redacted] also of the same address.

CG 92-345

Sergeant [redacted] advised that he will obtain additional information regarding [redacted] inasmuch as he has heard that [redacted] is associated with labor in the Los Angeles area.

Sergeant [redacted] further advised that on May 21, 1963, the Department of Motor Vehicles, Sacramento, California, advised him by teletype that GEORGE MADIAN is not allowed to drive a motor vehicle due to a physical infirmity as of April 11, 1963.

It is noted that the long distance telephone call made from the Executive House in Scottsdale, Arizona, to Van Nuys, California, on May 13, 1963, to telephone number 788-2150 is listed to ANN FENNER.

ALEX was asked if he was familiar with TONY BIERNAT or had any information pertaining to the BIERNAT slaying. ALEX again related "Tell me my rights, I don't have to talk to you, I am not going to talk to you, I am leaving." ALEX, as he entered his automobile, advised "You boys will have to do a better job next time." ALEX was advised that the Agents merely wanted to talk to him and they have done so. ALEX related "I don't mean nothing, you boys are doing a good job, I have nothing against you personally." ALEX then related "I'll be seeing you" and the Agents related "We'll be seeing you."
